High School Rodeo is “A Split Second from College”

Bozeman, MT— With great appreciation we announce, “Trish Stevenson has just finished her 16” X 20” painting entitled, A Split Second from College, and has, so graciously, donated it to the 2009 Montana State High School Rodeo Finals Host Committee to be used for fundraising.” The proceeds will help cover the expenses of putting on the rodeo in Bozeman.

In this piece, Trish has truly captured, and frozen in time, that split second when High School rodeo ends, and College rodeo begins. So far, 75+ High School Senior Cowboys and Cowgirls have qualified to participate in the 2009 State High School Rodeo Finals. Those who do compete will experience their ‘split second’ in Bozeman.

High School Rodeo encourages each student to continue their education and presents opportunities to these athletes to obtain college scholarships up to and including four year scholarships.

Only 150 signed & numbered 16” X 20” reprints of this art work are available at a cost of $100.00 each. If you would like to help out and support High School Rodeo, send your order to the 2009 Montana High School Rodeo State Finals Host Committee; P. O. Box 3234; Bozeman, MT 59772. Make your checks payable to MHSRSFH.

The 2009 Montana State High School Rodeo Finals will be in Bozeman, Mt; June 10 – 14th at the Gallatin County Fairgrounds.
